It is known by a few individuals in the counties of Jefferson. Shelby, and Oldham, that I have a remedy that effectually cures Hooping-Cough. If there are remedies in America or Europe that cures, it is not within my knowledge, (except the one I use.) Physicians tell the families they attend it can't be cured. I haven od oubt they are candid in what they state. To get the medicine in use, and lull to sleep a deep-rooted prejudice, the faculty are invited to get the medicine, and save the little innocents whom they attend, and tell them no more it cannot be cured. How com- and one which reflects so much credit upon forting is it to turn from the contemplation of the State. We have heard no complaint; but such to the labors of a true philanthropist, if the Doctor's compensation is no more than who, while others are employed in multiplying the sources of misery, is earnestly endeavoring to assuage the sorrows of mankind, and prosecute it, it is because it is more a labor of clevate man in the scale of being. If his reward is not as immediate, it is more lasting than Lexington and Revenue-A Match Prothat of the other; for it is of such that it is said, "their works doth follow them." It is highly probable that Virginia will and inexpressibly pity him whom they call accept the challenge: conqueror or city-burner. Thou, too, art a CHALLENGE FROM KENTUCKY TO VIRGINIA. conqueror and victor: but of the true sort, namely, over the Devil."

These are reflections suggested to our mind in perusing the very able report of Dr. Sutton; half forfeit, to name at the post, either mile or two mile heats—to be run over the Metairie for its value must strike every one who will give it ever so slight an examination. Its of 1860, or over the Woodlawn Course at Loufor its value must strike every one who will tables embrace statistical imformation upon the two great epochs in the life of every man -the period when we first took up the wail of helpless infancy, as prophetic of the storms that assail mature manhood, and also that at which we received a help meet, as Adam "his fair spouse," and and finally and more fully, the termination of the drama-death-which comes to all men, but comes to none without serious and solemn anxieties. The long columns of figures stand like the lines of a funeral pageant, and as we glance from "birth" to "death," we are reminded that "few and short are the days of man."

We have not space to go into a protracted feel an excusable pride that it is the result of the enlightened liberality of our own State, and is only another instance in which Kentucky has taken precedence of her sisters of the West in promoting the interests of her people. As she was the first of the Western States to embark in railroads and other internal improvements, so she leads the advance marks the progress of advancement more surely than the production of works like the one under review.

has been carefully prosecuted in England for centuries, and the destruction of such record by some untoward event has led to endless difficulties; and we can recall instances in our own country where such a record would have been invaluable. One we lately heard occurs to us, where the absence of such evidence was nearly costing a valuable estate to a family, and except that it was accidentally remembered by a very old man that he was in her grandfacontingency that may happen to the posterity of any man, and while all men are careful to preserve evidences of the title to their houses and their lands, that their children may not be annoyed by uncertainty, it would seem but of their children which entitles them to this

So likewise there is great satisfaction and a permanent value in having a record kept of every marriage that is solemnized in the State. There is at this time a lovely woman, the widow of an officer of high rank in the army, who has been endeavoring and litigating for years to gain possession of her father's estate, and the whole gist of the matter lies in the fact whether her father and mother were married at the time of her birth; but there being no record of such marriage, and all the witnesses having died, she is deprived of her patrimony, and the courts have pronounced sentence of bastardy against her, although the title of her father to this property has never been questioned. The lawyers are all familiar with cases arising from the uncertainty of marriage, and except that it is a fruitful source of profit to them in their profession, would urge the continuance of a record.

If there is value in preserving a record of births and marriages, as we have attempted to show, we think there will be no difficulty in persuading even the most skeptical of the beneficial results that grow out of recording and publishing an account of the diseases that prey upon, and the deaths that occur among, majority. Another abundant harvest has been gathered; another year of multiplied blessings is fast drawing to a close. The labors of the farmer, the mechanic, the manufacturer, and the merchant, the professional man and the man of science, have been abundantly rewarded; commerce has revived, trade has improved, and thrift is apparent every where throughout the land. Neither war nor pestilence nor famine has afflicted us. Peace, plenty, and health have blessed a free, prosperous, and happy people. Providence has showered His blessings upon us as individuals, as a State, as a nation. We should return to Him the homage of grateful hearts. In the eager pursuit of pleasure, of fortune, or of fame—in the excitement of our daily occupations—in the multiform pursuits of life, we are too apt to forget Him from whom these bounties come. Acknowledging no sovereign but Him, let us recognize the venerable custom of the "Jewish Feast of Weeks appointed by Jehovah for his chosen people." Rumor of an Attempt to Rescue Brown. Washington, Nov. 17.—A rumor was circulated here to day that Brown's rescue was attempted; but it fell still-born. A Richmond dispatch states that Edward Moffit, who was arrested at Lynchburg as a suspected participant in Brown's foray, has been released for want of evidence. identifying parties have proceeded to Wytheville for the purpose of examineing another suspected fugitive. Several suspected persons, mostly

Northern peddlers, have recently been arrested at Culpepper Court House, and it appears to be the intention of the authorities to place in confinement all who cannot give a good account of themselves. From Richmond.

RICHMOND, VA., Nov. 17.—A dispatch was received this evening from Col. Davis, at Charles town, to Gov. Wise, requesting him to send im-mediately two companies of cavalry, and stating that five barns and outhouses had been fired to day, it was supposed, by sympathizers with LATER .- Reports have been received here today from Charlestown, stating that an attempted rescue of Brown was expected, and created great excitement. The military are under arms, ready to march at a moment's warning. Acquitted.-James B. Gay was tried last week in the Clarke Circuit Court for shooting James Price with intent to kill, and was acquitted. The shooting, as our readers will remember, occurred in the same affray in which Price's son was killed, of which Gay was acquitted at a previous term of the Court.—Paris Citizen.

Black Republicanism in Kentucky. The Black Republican State Convention as sembled at Newport on Wednesday, the 16th inst. The attendance was very small. W. Jones, of Madison county, was elected chairman, and W. S. Bailey, of Newport, appointed Secretary.
Cassius M. Clay, of Madison, and George D.

Blakey, of Logan, were chosen Senatorial Delegates to the Black Republican National Conven-The following resolutions were offered by Cassius M. Clay and adopted:
Resolved, By the Republicans of Kentucky.

the progressive civilization of the age.

that they re affirm and stand by the Philadelphia platform of 1856. Resolved, That they are in favor of "law and order"—of State Sovereignty—of National su-premacy—of the Constitution—and the Union. Resolved, That they are determinedly opposed to survile insurrections, or illegal interference with slaves from at home or abroad. Resolved, That they stand by and defend the "freedom of speech," and the "liberty of the press"—and hold slavery, like all other policies and institutions, open to the will of the legal majorities—the omnipotence of conventions The convention adjourned to meet in Richmond, Madison county, in June.

Rio Grande Frontier-Startling News.

The Corpus Christi Ranchero, of the 7th inst., published at 3 P. M., announces from information received through two citizens of Corpus Christi, members of the bar, that the town and surrounding covercy are insimminent danger from Cortinas and his hand. The Ranchero says:

entire Mexican population, on both sides of the Rio Grande, are up in arms, advancing upon us to murder every white inhabitant and to reconquer the country as far as the Colorado river. have this information upon the affidavits of Messrs. Thomas and White, two respectable citizens of Cameron county, who, with their families, had just maraculously escaped from the clutches of one of the Lieutenants of Cortinas, and taken refuge at the rancho of Judge Love."

Messrs. Thomas and White say: On Monday, the 31st day of Ootober last, at their Rancho, about five miles this side of Arrovo Colorado, (100 miles distant from Corpus Christi,) they were suddenly attacked by a force of more than 100 men belonging to the Cortinas band, apparently led by Pancho Trevinio and Henry Cline. They sacked and destroyed the Rancho, drove off the stock, and carried away as prisoner Juan Villareal. The order was to murder the deponents and their families, but all succeeded in making their escape through the surrounding dense chaparral.

Under the command of Pedro Villareal, a company of more than 100 men had crossed from Mexico to join Cortinas, and these, as well as the other Mexican forces, were carrying aloft the Mexican colors. Cortinas had 450 men in camp, and as many more on scouts throughout the country, to intercept all communications with the beseiged in Brownsville, where were only about 50 reliable men under arms, but all of whom were worn out with fatigue. On the day of the attack on their Ranch, from 10 A. M. to sundown, they, at intervals, distinctly heard the firing o cannon in the direction of Brownsville.

To this statement is added the following from Messrs. J. O'Connor, R. D. Love, J. A. Ware, John B. Davis and J. A. E. Randolph, citizens of Nucces and San Patricio counties, who were at Judge Love's rancho, when Mr. W. D. Thomas, with his wife days to an experience of Mr. W. D. Thomas, with his wife days to an experience of Mr. W. D. Thomas, with his wife days to an experience of Mr. Nathan with his wife, daughter and son, and Mr. Nathaniel White, came from Rio Gaande and made the above declaration under affidavit.

We are satisfied that our frontier on the Rio Grande is in a state of war, and that Brownsville. with its American population, has either fallen into the hands of Cortinas and his men, who are supported and sustained by the Mexican population beyond the river, or is in great danger of being captured. The Mexican flag is flying from g staff four miles above Brownsville.

It further states that Capt. Kennedy and Nickles are dead, and J. F. Georges is a prisoner, and that the people of Rio Grande City were in daily expectation of another attack.

These statements from different quarters force us to conclude that an actual state of war exists on our frontier, which is entirely without protection, and its immediate defense devolves upon the citizens of Nueces and San Antonio rivers. which are nearest to the frontier.

It is necessary that our citizens turn out to defend our common country, and do it promptly. A meeting of our citizens is called this morn ing at 8 o'clock to devise means for the defense of our town. Capt. Tobin, with eighty men, is advancing upon Brownsville, but has to meet a force of about seven hundred well armed Mexicans. It is essential to reinforce Capt. Tobin. Will the citizens of Goliad, Refugo, Karnes, and Live Oak turn out and meet the appeal of those who have heard the statements of Thomas and

Fugitive Slave Case.

BARNSTABLE, MASS., Nov. 17 .- The case of the fugitive slave Columbus Jones, was resumed to-day. The prosecution concluded their case. The defense contended that the slaves was an involuntary deposit in the hands of Captain Bacon, which he was bound in common keep safely and return. About twenty-five witnesses were examined. The defense then put in, as evidence, a deposition taken in Florida. Objections to the evidence were made at every point, and much testimony was excluded.

OUR REPRINTS versus ECLECTICS, &c.

As we have for many years been paying more than $3,000 annually to the British Publishers for the matter furnished in these Periodicals, thus virtually becoming copartners with them in the profits of the Reprints, we trust the public will consider this in bestowing their patronage, and give us the preference over Eclectic and over patch mork publications, whether monthly, or weekly, which now extract soliberally from our works and poy nothing either to the Foreign Publishers or to us for the same. As to cheapness nobody can complain of paying $10 a year for the four leading British Reviews and Blackwood's Magazine, and by taking those works entire, subscribers are not obliged to be guided by others in the choice of the articles they may desire to read. Moreover, taking into consideration the style in which our Reprints are published and their acknowledged fidelity to the original editions, and also the advantage of an early issue by means of the advance Sheets—our series will befound as cheap as any of the competing publications to which we have alluded.

If PRemittances should always be addressed, post paid, to the Publishers.
